For your stay in Russia you need a VISA.

All foreign citizens are required to have valid Russian entry visas for travel to Russia. Your passport and valid Russian Entry Visa will be studied thoroughly by passport control officers when coming and leaving the country, checking-in at the hotels, when traveling by trains, ships, and airplanes with local or international companies. Russian visas are issued by Russian consulates in your home country, based on an invitation from an authorized Russian agent.

Please do not forget to apply for it to the Russian Consulate early enough.

For the application you need:

- Valid passport (validity minimum 6 months left)
- Consulate application form
- Invitation and voucher from our partner DEMLINK TRAVEL

Please note fair participants are supposed to have business visas only while traveling on business purposes. We offer one month business invitations for exhibitors which are available for the price of 38.00 Euro- 65.00 Euro depending on citizenship

It takes 21 calendar days to make the official invitation to Russia in the local Department of the Passport & Visa Service (PVU) of the Russian International Ministry. And it will take several days to make visa in your local Russian Consulate. That is why it is very important to send us your application forms not later than 5 April 2010. Otherwise we could not guarantee you will grant a visa in the Russian Consulate.

Touristic invitation - for the visitors of the exhibition only

The cost of the touristic invitation is 21Euro*. It takes 1 day to make the official invitation to Russia. It is available only if you have a hotel booking.

For the application you need:

- Valid passport (validity minimum 6 months left)
- Consulate application form
- Invitation and voucher from our partner DEMLINK TRAVEL

All prices are quoted in Russian Roubles.
